

A SUITCASE FULL OF FAITH

by Saskia Röell

Suggested topics for Saskia Röell, best-selling author of A Suitcase Full of Faith

- How did you come up with A Suitcase Full of Faith as the title for your book?
- Why did you write this book?
- Many books offer life wisdom and advise. What makes A Suitcase Full of Faith different?
- You've had quite an adventurous life. How did you take that giant leap of faith to move your family to America?
- How do we stop fear from holding us back when the noise of doubt surrounds us?
- You share stories of some very difficult times you've survived in your life. Was there ever a time when you lost your faith?
- Along the way, were you ever afraid you had not made the right decision by choosing to follow the voice of your heart instead of the voice of your mind?
- What can people who are currently struggling learn about surviving hardship by reading your book?
- You've given birth to five children and to many dreams. In your counseling practice you help people birth their dreams as well as their babies. How do faith and trust relate to both?
- How do you help women who face infertility?
- What messages do you hope your readers will take away from your book?
- Many people say your book has deeply transformed their lives. Why does the book have such an impact on people?
- Where can we find your book? (www.suitcasefulloffaith.com)
- Do you have plans for another book?
- For those who search to find a path to a better life, what are some of the most important life lessons they can discover through reading your book?
- You've always been devoted to empowering others. What steps do you recommend that lead to greater life empowerment?

www.illuminatedtransformation.com

© 2009 Saskia Röell

To schedule interviews with Saskia Roell contact Rita Barry-Corke, Publicist at RBC Communications 603 778 7201
barryorkemedia@comcast.net